

Bringing the Splendor of Springtime's Beauty Inside Your Home By Katrina Katsarelis As the primary shade of most things found in nature, decorators and homeowners use shades of green to bring the beauty of the earth's natural landscapes indoors. The color offers the utmost versatility, with many shades to satisfy all tastes. Whether your style is traditional with rich forest green, or minimalist with muted mossy green, or modern with shades of bold lime, most experts agree that green is one of the most popular color choices for interior design. With its reputation for having soothing and restful qualities, it's no wonder Katy homeowners are crazy for green this spring. Doublemint Twins Soft mint green serves as the landscape of this relaxing living room. Perfectly paired settees, armoires, and sconces are enhanced with dusty pink accessories. To advertise, call 281-579-9840 or email sales@katymagazine.com KATY MAGAZINE • 59

How to Add a

Touch of Spring

Go green gradually by adding touches of green and building on what you currently have in your home.

- PLANTS Add new plants and greenery to bring instant life to any space.
- FRUIT A glass bowl of limes or pears makes a stunning centerpiece for any room.
- RUGS A bold green rug under a table gives the room an instant pop of color.
- ▶ PAINT Choose your favorite shade of green and try it on one wall to see how you like it.
- LAMPSHADES Swap out drab or outdated lampshades with springtime green ones.
- ACCESSORIES Try green vases, placemats, tablecloths, throw pillows, or other accent pieces.
