

KATY AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Award Winners

The Katy Area Chamber of Commerce holds an annual gala event as a tribute to Katy and its outstanding community members. The individuals recognized at this year's awards ceremony are individuals and companies that have made a significant difference in the Katy community.

CITIZENS OF THE YEAR

CINDY AND DR. JOHN ZERWAS

The Honorable Dr. John Zerwas and wife Cindy are this year's Citizens of the Year. Their respective contributions, family values, and commitment to the Katy community helped make them the ideal winners.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

CHRIS CROCKETT

Due to her passion to provide resources, countless programs, and enrichment for Katy ISD students and the entire Katy community, Chris Crockett was recognized as Volunteer of the Year.

BUSINESS OF THE YEAR

ADAMS LAW FIRM

Adams Law Firm was recognized as Business of the Year for their unbelievable example of a strong business with a commitment to giving back to their community. They have donated their time and talents to numerous Katy area organizations and continue to inspire others. Pictured are (seated) Beth Rowatt, Will Adams, Dawn Guilliams, (standing) Sean Josephson, John Mara, Tad Adams, and Kalen Malone.

EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE

KATY EDC

The Katy Area Economic Development Council was awarded the Exceptional Service Award for their well-respected and strategic investment in the Katy community. They have helped create more than 10,000 jobs and have tremendously assisted in making Katy a nationally recognized premier relocation area. Katy EDC has an impressive track record and our community has benefited from their exceptional efforts. Pictured are (seated) Melanie Easterling, Shelby Gurley, (standing) Stan Stanley, Woody Mann, Jr., Lance LaCour, and Frank Lombard.

Katy Magazine would like to congratulate this year's award winners and wishes all the recipients continued success.
