Whether it's a cozy breakfast nook or a luxurious and relaxing master bedroom, every Katyite has a favorite home space. Here are a few faves we wanted to share with you.

I Love This Room!

The favorite room of many Katy homeowners, nothing brings family togetherness and lively mealtime conversations more than a bright and sunny breakfast nook.

Which room do you head to immediately when you walk through the door? Is it the busy family kitchen or a quiet den? Perhaps you head to the master bedroom for a few minutes or plop down in the family room. Maybe your favorite space is an outdoor sitting area where you can relax beneath the big and bright Texas stars. The room you love most is likely to be the place you spend the most time. Read on to find out some of Katy's favorite spaces.

Tiki Dreams

This teen's casual beach-themed boudoir features hand-painted walls of waves and beach flower fabrics to keep visions of Hawaii dancing through her dreams.

Music rooms are also a hit with Katy because they give the family's musicians a dedicated space to practice, perform, and entertain
