FRENCH COUNTRY CHIC

This large formal dining room is captivating with a mixture of distressed wooden furniture and elegant seating. The area is encased by two peep-through buffet cabinets which provide serving ware with a dual purpose of decoration when not in use.

TRULY TRADITIONAL

Stylish and simple, the room creates rhythm by repeating the shape in the chairs, side table, and china cabinet. This large rectangular rug maintains a comfortable feel while still leaving some of the lighter hardwood flooring exposed.

COSMIC COLOR

Punch up the energy of your space by adding bold colored furniture. These red mod-style chairs offset the opaque colored brick and dark flooring. Showcase your design style by adding varying heights, textures, and shapes to your table.

OCEANIC OASIS

A homeowner passionate for deep sea diving chose a color scheme of grays, blues, and greens. The feel of ocean waves is reflected in the use of curves from the table pedestal and fabric design on chairs to the chandelier and the knobs on the sideboard.

ROUND IT OUT

Encourage conversation with a round table. This dining room includes a same-style beverage cart adding character to the space and providing easy access for the host to continue serving their guests without having to leave the room or the fun.

CREATING CONVERSATION

Your prime entertainment space is an ideal place to display unique decorating pieces. Use lit cabinetry to display rare books, family heirlooms, or collectibles. The centerpiece of this room is the striking, geometric, three-part chandelier.

LUSTROUS LIGHTING

Play up your windows. Natural lighting makes a dining room magnetic. You can also use lightly patterned draperies to bring texture to your room. If your space is right off the entry, keep your formal table decorated with a nice place setting adding a wow factor to your décor. You can even change it out with the seasons. KM
