The scoop on what's been happening in Katy

ARTreach Announces New Executive Board

ARTreach, a group that delivers quality art programs to Katy families through volunteer support, recently elected new executive members. Pictured are board member Ernest Lewis, executive director Anne Campbell, secretary Adriana Rubin, and president Fatima Donaldson.

Mattress Mack Visits TCH West Campus

Owner of Gallery Furniture, Jim McIngvale, shared his secrets for success in customer service with more than 30 employees at Texas Children's Hospital West Campus, encouraging the group to create positive patient experiences on a daily basis.

Charity Organization Donates to Texas Children's Hospital West Campus

The Pin Oak Charity Horse Show presented a check to Texas Children's Hospital West Campus. This completed a commitment to donate a total of $400,000 to the hospital for building and maintaining programs like Child Life, which offers therapeutic intervention and stress management for patients undergoing this treatment.

Horse Mounted Police Division Visits Special Needs Program

The special needs adults at St. Peter's United Methodist Church had the opportunity to meet Elsa, Royalty, and Techron, three horses from the Houston Police Department's Mounted Patrol Division. The horses also interacted with students from the autism programs at nearby Taylor High School.

Firethorne Announces Record Home Sales

Firethorne surpassed 350 new home sales for the second year in a row in 2014. When completed, the 1,400-acre master-planned community will have 3,400 homes with 150 acres devoted to parks and recreational amenities. Firethorne recently opened six new sections and will open a new Model Home Park for its 70-foot lots in spring 2015.

Church Raises Money for Deployed Soldiers

The Star of Destiny Chapter and the Stars and Stripes Society raised over $2,000 and collected 80 boxes of supplies at CrossPoint Church to benefit American soldiers overseas.
