ACCESSORIZE YOUR HOME WITH PIECES
THAT BREAK THE RULES AND REFLECT
YOUR PERSONAL STYLE

Written by Kirsten Cornell

BY THE SEA

Dreaming of your seaside vacation? Select accessories that remind you of your favorite places like this conch shell lamp or ceramic coral.

OFF-THE-WALL ART

Looking for something a little different? Choose a unique piece of metal art for your wall. The 3D effect adds extra depth to the space.

PERSONAL PENDANT

Fight the urge to match. Throw pillows are an easy way to play on your personality and liven up a room.

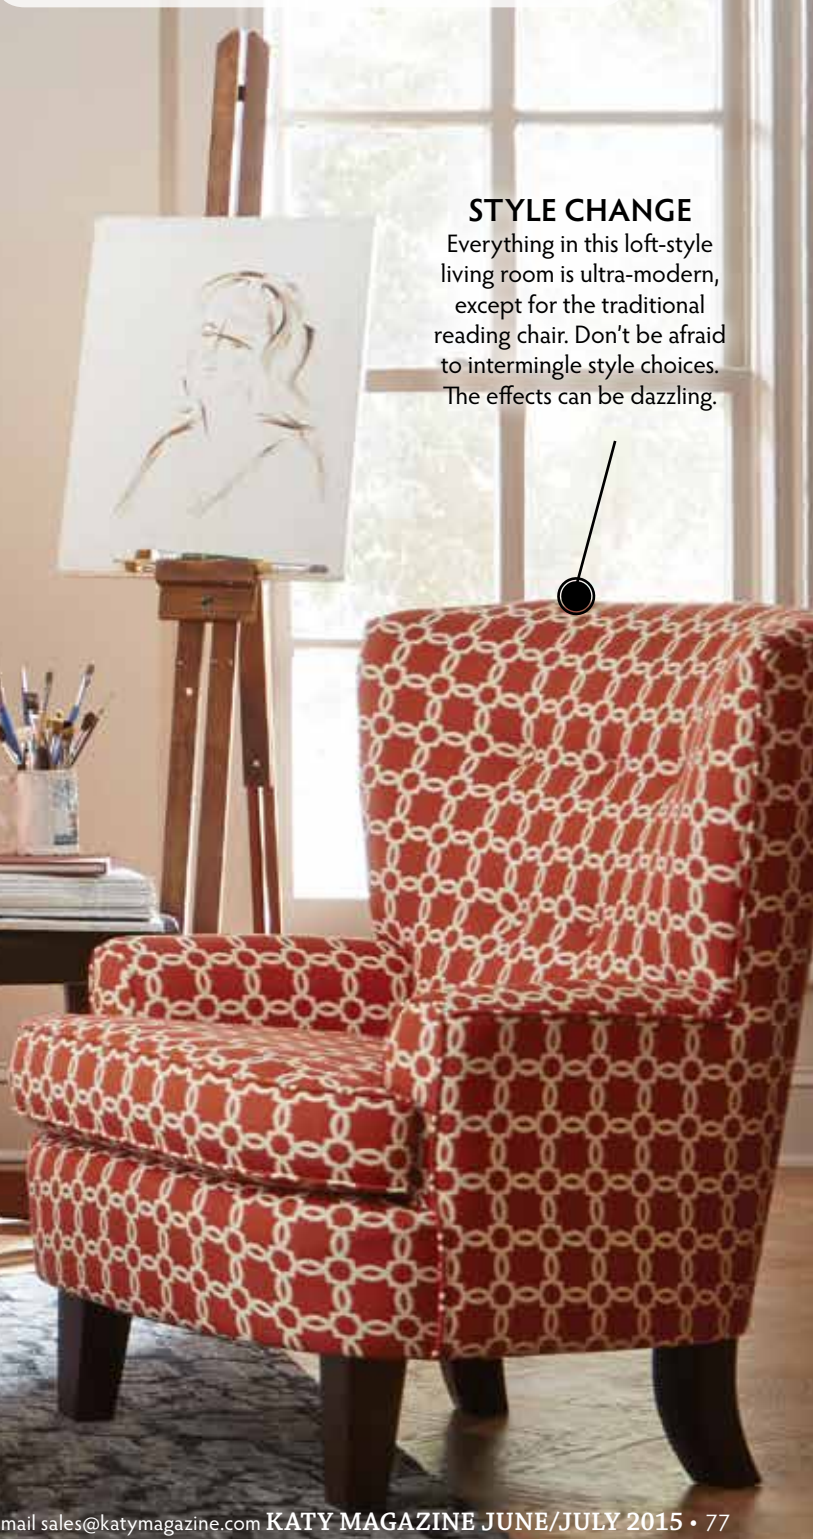

COLOR GUIDE

What is your anchor piece? A large orange sofa or an ornate Persian rug? Use the hues in this piece when determining the color palette for the space and selecting your other furnishings. Creating a polished and cohesive look isn't about all of your pieces matching but about repetition, whether that is a color or a pattern.

STYLE CHANGE

Everything in this loft-style living room is ultra-modern, except for the traditional reading chair. Don't be afraid to intermingle style choices. The effects can be dazzling.

HAVANA HAVEN

Bring the Caribbean to you with a Cuban-style motif. The platform-style bed and dark wood furniture is brought to life with energetic colors and textured patterns in the bedding. Whimsical watercolor paintings of scenic views complete this beachy retreat.

EYE-CATCHING DESIGN

Accent chairs run the gamut as far as shape and style. Select one with a bold pattern or striking paint color to create a focal point in your room. The great thing about "occasional chairs" is that they are typically lightweight and can be easily moved if you decide to rearrange on a whim.

MIX IT UP

Throw traditional out the window and mix it up with varying patterns, textures, and colors. Use a complimentary color scheme to serve as your guide when shopping, such as these rich coordinating jewel tones. This is especially helpful when you are trying to tie a multifunctional space together.

PATTERN PLAY

Pick a fun pattern to play up your dining area. These vibrantly colored chairs provide an irresistibly eclectic charm. The sunset colors offset by aqua finishing create a bold statement.

ROOTED IN STYLE

If you are in search of a woody approach to your natural motif, try adding an end table made of tree root. Nothing is as versatile as woodgrain, and it can be added to a study, living area, or front entry.

STATEMENT SEATING

Break from the mold of traditional dining chairs and opt for comfortable wingback or slipper chairs. A secret to mixing patterns is choosing a distinct color scheme. This room is accented by shades of red, pink, and magenta.

READER'S NOOK

Carve out a space for catching up on your favorite novels. Choose a comfy chair to curl up in and a snuggle-worthy pillow. This bookworm chose a refurbished barrel as a reading stand to add some character. And don't forget lighting - a good reading lamp is essential. KM

ADDING ACCENTS

Wingback chairs with their generous size and tall backs make ideal counterparts to large sofas and can help you balance a room. Change it up by using these stately chairs for the head seat at your dining table.
