More News Nuggets from Katy Schools

Seven Lakes Junior High

Seven Lakes Junior High started a student-run newspaper, The Saga. There are 23 seventh- and eighth-graders on staff, advised by Katie Frazier. Students are taught the basics of journalism and produce both an online and print version of the paper throughout the school year.

Mayde Creek High School NJROTC

The Mayde Creek Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps academic team recently won the 2015 Navy JROTC Academic Bowl Championship in Washington, D.C. for the second consecutive year.

McMeans Junior High

The families of McMeans Junior High are helping Project C.U.R.E. spread health and hope globally. For three weeks, they collected basic first-aid supplies, created kits, and sent them around the world.

Sundown Elementary School

Representatives from Intel and Micro Center presented Sundown Elementary with a $10,000 check as part of an incentive competition, Score with Intel Core 2015. The Intel Edge program challenged Micro Center, Best Buy, and Fry's retail locations from across the U.S. to answer questions and sharpen their knowledge on Intel products. The Houston Micro Center location placed second in the competition, earning $10,000 to be donated to Sundown Elementary School.

Katy High School Color Guard

Katy High School Color Guard hosted their Spin for a Cure event and raised money for Susan G. Komen. They had a bake sale, commemorative T-shirts, pink spirit flags, and pink ribbons to hang on the tribute wall for sale, and a video slideshow that ran during the event.
