

Katy Magazine gives a shout-out to all the good news happening in our community

Chuy's

For every queso sold in Houston, Chuy's donated $1 to Bennett's Bears. This organization was started by Chuy's customers whose son, Bennett, spent Christmas in the hospital being treated for cancer. Bennett's Bears gifts Build-a-Bears to pediatric cancer patients and other children in the Houston area.

No Gravity Studio

In an effort to join the battle against childhood cancer, No Gravity Studio is carrying on Alex Scott's inspiring legacy by raising money to fight childhood cancer. They offered 60% of the value of any purchased photo session with No Gravity Studio to be donated to the Alex Lemonade Stand Foundation to fund research.

Hub Hyundai West of Katy

The dealership held a food drive for the Houston food bank. They reached their goal of filling up four Hyundai Santa Fe models with food donations.

ESN Health

The ESN Health Team was able to provide more than 75 gifts to local Katy families through the Angel Giving Tree fundraiser. The Angel Giving Tree is an annual tradition where the tree is decorated with angel ornaments that represent the gifts for children and their family members.

CrossFit 1420

The CrossFit competition, which featured more than 100 competing athletes and was presented by Noremac Gas, raised over $44,000 for the Stuff the Sleigh non-profit organization. Stuff the Sleigh is dedicated to helping children and their families through year-round giving to children who are affected by cancer.

Katy and Brookshire Masonic Lodge

The Katy and Brookshire Masonic Lodges held a competitive canned food drive as part of a lodge challenge with each other where all proceeds benefited the Eternal Food Ministry. In the end, almost 5,000 pounds of food was donated. Eternal Foods Ministry gives, on average, over 20,000 pounds of food a month to the Brookshire and Katy communities through three different ministries.

MW Cleaners

The local cleaners held their first-ever MW Cares coat and blanket drive by accepting donations from the community. They also held an MW Cares toy drive where they collected toys and donated them to the Salvation Army. The team cooked breakfast as a thank you to all the volunteers, the Salvation Army, and the Harbor Light Choir.

Katy ISD Police

The Katy ISD Police sponsored the Santa Cops program where they provided gifts and clothing for 565 children whose families may be experiencing a hardship.

Tiger-Rock Martial Arts of Katy

Tiger-Rock Martial Arts held a toy drive and donated toys to children and teens at the Shriner's Burn Hospital in Galveston and Orthopedic Hospital in Houston.

Golden Beginnings

Golden Retriever Rescue

The rescue foundation held their annual virtual "Tree of Hope" where they asked for donations to use to save golden retrievers. Their goal was to raise $45,000 which they exceeded with a grand total of $49,770.

Flaunt Hair Salon

The salon participated in the Heart for Fashion Show where they supported three charities through the Texas Legacy Foundation.
