Stan Stanley Day

November 3rd will be Katy's "How Can I Help You Day" in honor of Stan Stanley. It will be a day to celebrate him and the years of community service he provided. Residents of Katy are asked to do something good in their neighborhood on this day.

Katy ISD BEAM Award Winners

Three members of the Katy community were presented with the Katy ISD BEAM Award. Rusty Wylie, Chick-fil-A; Katrina Katsarelis, Katy Magazine; and Downey Vickery, Prosperity Bank have displayed the "Because Everyone's Attitude Matters" slogan in their everyday actions by being responsible, courageous, honorable, and more.

Bryant Elementary Groundbreaking

Future students, bond committee members, and staff participated in the ceremonial shoveling of the dirt. Katy ISD band directors provided music, honoring namesakes and long-time Katy ISD employees Robert and Felice Bryant. Robert began his career in Katy ISD in 1983 as the director of bands and fine arts department chair for Katy High School and was promoted to executive director of fine arts for Katy ISD in 2000. Felice bestowed 24 years teaching kindergarten and first-grade students in Katy ISD, and was Katy Elementary Teacher of the Year in 1997. The school will open in 2017.

Texans Visit Brookwood

The Houston Texans cheerleaders and a few players put on a pep rally for the residents of Brookwood Community. Texans owner, Bob McNair, presented the community with a $75,000 check from The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation.

ER Katy Medical Scholarship Winners

Five Katy ISD seniors were awarded scholarships ranging from $300 to $1,000. With such a great collection of essays and outstanding resumes, the scope of the scholarships were expanded to five winners and two honorable mentions.

LaCenterra at Cinco Ranch

The shopping and dining center was aglow in purple and green lighting during a concert to recognize local cancer survivors, patients, and caregivers. Guests enjoyed live music, glow necklaces, complimentary souvenir photos, and free educational materials.

Sports Medicine Scholarship Winners

Six Katy ISD athletic trainers were awarded sports medicine scholarships from Memorial Hermann Katy Hospital. Each recipient was awarded $500 in recognition of their distinguished service they provided to the Katy ISD athletic programs.
