COMPLETING MY DEGREE

Making the decision to go back to school was difficult for hair stylist Chevella Sampson. "At first, I was nervous. I hadn't been in school for 25 years," says Chevella. But she knew deep down that the Christ-based curriculum at Belhaven was the right place for her. When she called a Belhaven University counselor, she says her fears were instantly put to rest. "The staff made it so easy. I knew this was where I belonged."

Finding My Purpose

Today, Chevella has been at Belhaven for two years and says everyone seems like family. "They know your name and they want you to succeed. My professors have an open-door policy. If you need guidance, guidance will be provided to you. Having a Biblical perspective in your education not only allows you to expand your career, it fulfills a purpose in life no matter what talent you have. Talent is no good without purpose."

Belhaven students graduate with the tools they need to stay competitive in today's global economy.
