

Katy Magazine gives a shout-out to all the good news happening in our community

Kingsland Baptist Church

The church held a car care clinic designed for single parents and people on fixed or limited incomes.

Haven at Highland Knolls

The community, along with The Learning Experience, held a book drive and donated all of the books to the DePelchin Children's Center in Katy.

Jimmy Changas

The Katy location donated $5,000 to help Katy American Little League with clean up and the purchase of new equipment after the league's storage room was vandalized.

First Choice Emergency Rooms

The emergency care unit held a collection drive for items to fill care packages for members of the military and first responders.

Chick-fil-A

The Mason Road location helped provide clean water for Nicaragua from the sale of Dasani bottled water. All of the proceeds went to Living Water International.

Legacy at Falcon Point

The residents read books to the children in the Child Watch center at Monty Ballard YMCA at Cinco Ranch.

The Waters Church

Every third Monday of the month, the church provides lunch and treats to the officers of the Katy police department.

Pet Adoptions

Fort Bend County Commissioner Vincent Morales paid for multiple adoption fees to help rescue pets at the Fort Bend County Animal Shelter.

Menchie's

The frozen yogurt shop donated 15% of its sales to The Lifelong Learning Center.

Grand Vision Center

The optometrists gave free eye exams to friends of Hope Impacts.

Tricia Turner Properties

The real estate company offers 1% of the sales price back at closing to all firefighters, first responders, police officers, and military. They also offer $1,000 to all teachers at closings.

Foster Creek Veterinary Hospital

The animal hospital provided free spays, neuters, and rabies vaccines for the dogs who were found and rescued by the Fort Bend County Sheriff's Office.

Thayer O'Neal

The accounting firm presented Reining Strength Therapeutic Horsemanship with a $7,500 check.

CrossPoint Westgreen

Members of the church partnered with Clothed By Faith to offer items to families in need. Bags were distributed and will be filled with socks, shoes, underwear, and other clothing items.

Wilson Elementary School

The students, staff, and school community donated over $1,900 to Officer Santiago so he can continue his Teddy Cop program.

Good Ole Boys

The Cajun restaurant held an all-you-can-eat crawfish boil to help raise funds for the Katy Cares organization.

Katy Budget Books

The book store has a used credit account that has been donated to public school teachers.

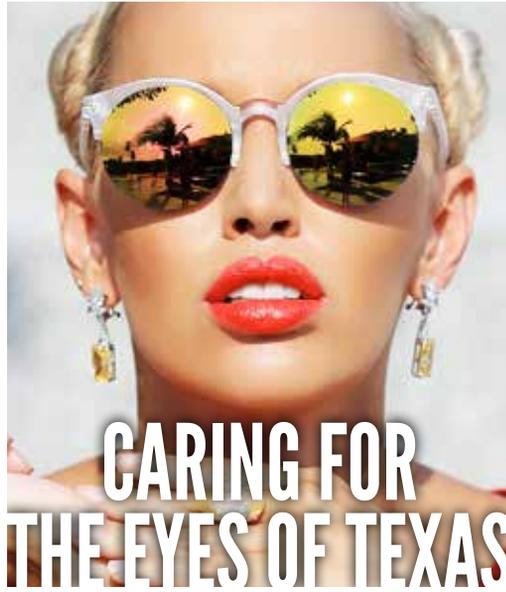

Carriage Inn

A luncheon was held to show support for first responders in the community. Crafts and goodie bags were put together by the residents themselves.
