

Suzi Issa meets Bret Michaels before the show

Katy fans enjoying the concert

Roger Clemens and Mo of Mo's Place with Katy fans

Katy Loves Bret

Rock Musician Makes a Cameo Appearance at Mo's Place

By Mary Hogan

Photography by Suzi Issa

When rock musician Bret Michaels took the stage at Mo's Place recently, the room was packed with Katy fans eager to hear him perform his classic hits. And true to his stellar reputation, Michaels didn't disappoint, performing a variety of selections to the cheers of Katyites. "He put on a great show!" shares Katy fan Dara Hooks Broussard. Beth Gemerek Donnelly adds, "I didn't get to meet him, but he walked right by me and I got a great picture. Great show!"

An avid supporter of the troops, Michaels made a special dedication during the concert, recognizing the many contributions of U.S. service men and women who have given so much to Katy and the nation. "The show was awesome," shares Zenon Yracheta of Katy. "Bret is one of the coolest rockers ever!"

Michaels is most well known as the lead singer of the '80s band Poison and has sold over 25 million records in his career. Since then, he has led a successful solo musical career, touring around the country. In 2010, he was named the winner of Donald Trump's TV show Celebrity Apprentice on NBC, earning $250,000 for the American Diabetes Association. KM

Reality star, rock icon, and diabetes champion Bret Michaels makes a pit stop in Katy before beginning his worldwide tour with Poison