National Charity League Honors Senior High School Girls at Local Presentation Ceremonies

Each time this year, the three National Charity League (NCL) chapters in Katy present their senior classes at a special ceremony celebrating each graduating girl's contributions in the community. Most of the girls have been volunteering with NCL since seventh grade and have spent numerous hours serving charities across Katy and West Houston. A few of the many charities the girls volunteer for are Katy Christian Ministries, Krause Center, Breath of Life Children's Center, and Brookwood Community.

The Azalea Chapter of National Charity League honored its graduating seniors at a dinner dance, attended by family and friends, at the Omni Hotel. The annual event celebrated the accomplishments of each senior girl and recognized her contributions to the community during her years of service in National Charity League. The seniors are students from Cinco Ranch, Morton Ranch, St. Agnes Academy, Seven Lakes, and Taylor high schools.

National Charity League's Katy Chapter celebrated 19 Katy area high school senior girls, who have donated over 1,425 hours to philanthropies in their six years with the National Charity League. The Katy Chapter is a mother-daughter service organization that helps serve its community.

The Star Chapter of National Charity League honored the class of 2010 at its annual senior recognition presentation. Each student was recognized for her involvement in community service, leadership development, and cultural activities. The organization provides opportunities for mothers and daughters to volunteer in their community while nurturing leadership skills and cultural awareness.
