NATIONAL CHARITY LEAGUE HONORS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS
AT LOCAL PRESENTATION CEREMONIES

KATY CHAPTER

The Katy Chapter of NCL recently celebrated 28 Katy area high school senior girls, attending Taylor, Morton Ranch, Cinco Ranch, and Katy high schools, as well as the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts. During their six years of involvement with NCL, they collectively performed nearly 4,000 philanthropy hours in service to 19 area charitable organizations. Of those service hours to the community, 2,000 were completed in tandem with their mothers.

Pictured are (front row) Arden McCormack, Lacey McNiel, Victoria Hollabaugh, Tori Ivanovich, Sarah Bayne, Megan Cotton, (second row) Maggie Ferguson, Missy Meyer, Claire Martin, Christy Keyes, Betsy Fowler, Colleen Laffin, Laura Lansdown, (third row) Haley Haggard, Mallory Martin, Rebecca Hammons, Rachel Leiby, Kristin Baldwin, Jordan Miller, Kaygan Tissue, Brittany Phelps, (back row) Drew Adams, Rebecca Hollabaugh, Stephanie Ellis, Julia Andrews, Emily Crookson, Elizabeth Page, and Sydney Adkins

Each time this year, Katy's three National Charity League (NCL) chapters present their senior classes at a special ceremony celebrating each graduating girl's contributions in the community. Most of the girls have been volunteering with NCL since seventh grade and have spent numerous hours serving charities across Katy and West Houston. A few of the many charities the girls volunteer for are Katy Christian Ministries, Krause Center, Breath of Life Children's Center, and Brookwood Community.

STAR CHAPTER

The Star Chapter of NCL recently honored the class of 2011 at its annual senior recognition and presentation on March 6. The chapter is made up of Katy area mothers and daughters dedicated to serving their community together, while developing leadership skills and supporting culture and the areas. Each student was recognized for her leadership roles and involvement in community service throughout her years with NCL.

AZALEA CHAPTER

The Azalea Chapter of NCL recently honored its graduating seniors at its annual senior presentation in late February at the Omni Houston Hotel at Westside. At the dinner and dance attended by family and friends, chapter members celebrated the accomplishments of each of the 28 girls in the Azalea class of 2011 and recognized her contributions to the community during her years of service in the six-year NCL program. The seniors are students at five area high schools, including Cinco Ranch, Pope John XXIII, St. Agnes Academy, Seven Lakes, and Taylor. The Azalea chapter was formed in 1999, and in the past year, its members have served over 9,000 volunteer hours in support of 25 charitable organizations in Katy. KM
