While many children look forward to summer, many parents fret over what they are going to do with their children over the long school break. Some parents have jobs that do not permit them to spend an entire summer with their child. Luckily, Katy is full of summer camps, ranging from computer and sports camps to dance and theater camps. Campers can register for anywhere from a few days of camp to a full summer break. With this many choices, your child is sure to enjoy their summer with friends while learning fun new skills.
