

SCENES FROM

Katy Day in Austin, Texas

PHOTOGRAPHY BY COUNTRY PARK PORTRAITS

Katy Chamber members visited briefly with politicians including Senator Glenn Hegar, Senator Joan Huffman, Senator Rodney Ellis, and Senator Dan Patrick

Katy community and business leaders headed to Austin, Texas on April 4, 2013 to witness the proclamation of "Katy Day" after an early morning bus trip and a tour of the State Capitol.

Sponsored by the Katy Area Chamber of Commerce, Katy Day is usually held every two years and gives chamber members a chance to see sessions in progress, enjoy guest speakers, and meet local and state politicians.

Katy leaders accepting the proclamation

Touring the State Capitol

Networking on the bus trip

For more information about sponsoring or attending upcoming Katy Days, visit katychamber.com

Watching from the balcony

Katy ISD Superintendent Alton Frailey, former Katy Mayor Don Elder, Sam Schultze, Rep. John Zerwas, Speaker of the House Joe Straus, Ann Hodge, and Hon. Glen Beckendorff (pictured in the front row)

 For more photos of Katy Day, visit Katy Magazine on Pinterest!