Glamorous and over-the-top designer closets

There's no denying that a spacious and organized closet makes for an ideal space. But what is the difference between a well-designed closet and a dream closet? These spaces are adorned with sofas, chandeliers, lighted display cases, and more. Imagine having a dedicated space for each type of clothing, being able to place all of your shoes in pull-out drawers, or even having enough room for an island vanity.

Luminous Lighting

Natural lighting combined with a vintage chandelier is a winning combination. The all-white shelving and plush carpet adds to the chic look of this room.

Lounge Space

No need to balance on one foot while strapping on your heels. This closet features a window seat complete with decorative pillows where you can sit and put on your accessories in comfort.

Classic Creation

Keep things classy with a neutral palette and size-appropriate cubby holes for items like ties, shoes, and hats. This closet has upped the ante with granite countertops on the chest of drawers.

Stroll over to your shoes lined up in pristine rows with backlight so you can make sure you're choosing the perfect pair. Don't forget to select a handbag that compliments your outfit of the day.

Shoe Paradise

If shoes are your thing, this is the closet design for you. These shelves are angled for optimum display and include a heel catch. Never miss out on the perfect matching necklace again when all of your accessories are organized in glass top cases. The geometric light fixture and floor-to-ceiling mirrors add to this super-trendy space.

Double Decker

What would it be like to utilize a ladder in your closet? This closet boasts two stories of clothing, shoes, purses, and accessories. It is also highlighted by a large modern chandelier that adds to the ultra-chic design. Crank windows on both floors bring in natural light to the well laid-out design.

Girly Glamour

Add instant style to your closet with a funky patterned wallpaper backdrop. Instead of a heavy vanity, this designer chose a sleek glass tabletop to display accessories and the owner's colorful rain boots. A dressing chair and full-length mirror lend to the boutique feel of this space.

Bountiful Built-ins

Some of the most sought after upgrades are built-in vanities, table tops, and chests of drawers. Having a variety of shelving at different sizes will help you feel organized. Install hanging bars at different levels and in different sections versus one long row to help you systemize by style, type, or color. KM
